SUBJECT.

Application from Mr. S. Krishna Murthy Iyengar for permission to edit & publish a Kannada monthly styled "Bharatadevi"

File No. 7164 of 193 . | General and Revenue Secretariat

So far as the starting of such journals is concerned, ~~no former~~ no direct control is exercised by Govt. ~~When~~ Under any such journals are subscribed for by ~~Govt~~ Govt., their tone etc. is not watched. ~~But we may do not deal with~~ It is possible that there may be journals started (without permission) on the express declaration of not dealing in public news, indulging in public news or objectionable propaganda. It is for consideration whether every District Magistrate may not be specifically required to get a copy of every newspaper as well as other periodical (not coming under Newspaper Regulat) published in his district and bring to notice any objectionable publications or violation of the provisions of the law.

Subd. Under section 9 of the Printing presses and books Regn 1 of 1894, the printer of every publication has to supply a copy of it to the Deputy Comr of the Dist, together with a memorandum containing the particulars regarding the title of the book, its language &c &c. The Dy Comr shall send on the book 24/11/34 to the Registrar of authorised publications

Periodicals not dealing in public news seem to be treated in the same way as any other printed book & a copy sent to the Dy. Comr who has to send it on to the Registrar of Authorised Publications

The point for consideration is whether in the case of journals, which do not register themselves as newspapers under the Regn of 1908 with the permission of Govt., any watch is necessary.

(14/11/34

To,

The Chief Secretary to the Govt. of Mysore
Bangalore

Sir,

I request you to kindly grant permission for the publication of a monthly journal styled "Brihadiswari". It is published from Vontikoppal, Mysore, and I am the Editor and Publisher of the journal.

It contains only novels and stories. It is a non-political journal and it never deals even with current events. I have sent a sample copy of the journal.

Hoping that you will kindly sanction the Govt. permission for its publication.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
yours faithfully,
S. Krishnamurthy Iyengar
